PRIVACY STATEMENT

U3A in London needs members to provide the information on this form so that they can be kept informed about our programme and activities that are offered as part of membership of U3A in London.

We will:

1. Store it securely
2. Use it to communicate with you as a member
3. Share it only with co-ordinators of the groups of which you are a member
4. Share it with the company that oversees the distribution of the Third Age Trust magazines

Please be advised that you can request for your data not to be used for any of these purposes at any time by contacting the Chairman in writing.

CODE OF CONDUCT

As a member of U3A in London I agree to abide by the principles of the U3A movement and this code of conduct which enables us to thrive in an atmosphere which is friendly, respectful and supportive.

We share the Old Town Hall with WAC Arts, our landlords, together with a number of other tenants and we need to be good neighbours.

For these reasons I agree:

1. Not to do anything which could bring U3A in London or the wider U3A movement in disrepute.
2. To abide by the reasonable rules of WAC Arts for the use of the Old Town Hall by its tenants and occupiers.
3. Any concern or complaint about the behaviour of any other member or of anyone else in the building should be reported to the U3A Office. It will then be dealt with by the U3A Executive Committee.
