
Summer Programme 2026 Room 2.21 and Zoom

Week 1

Monday 3 August	10.15	Mary Rossiter 1/2. Medical Humour: Many a true word spoken in jest.
	11.30	Gaye Illsley. Lasting Power of Attorney. What it is, what it will and won't do for you. Plus recent changes in the registration process
Tuesday 4 August	10.15	Ken Baldry 1/3 The Roaring Twenties
	11.30	Robert Coleman. The Life of Charlie Chaplin. From rags to riches and the bright lights of Hollywood. In the 1920s and 30s, he was one of the most famous people in the world.
	14.30	WALK: Doctors, Trams and Fairs. The History of Pond Street and South End Green. Email Averil to book, and meet outside St Stephen's Church, corner Rosslyn Hill and Pond Street.
Wednesday 5 August	10.15	Andy Moss 1/3. Parachute: Fear of Flying or Falling?
	11.30	Stephen Barry 1/2. London through Artists' Eyes
	14.30	WALK: Doctors, Trams and Fairs (rpt) The History of Pond Street and South End Green. Email Averil to book, and meet outside St Stephen's Church, corner Rosslyn Hill and Pond Street.
Thursday 6 August	10.15	Andy Williamson. The History of Brown's Hotel Mayfair. A history of rulers, writers and rascals. Behind discreet doors meet Kipling at work, Mark Twain at ease, monarchs in exile, Gandhi taking tea. A lively glimpse into two centuries of London life. The illustrated pocket history of Brown's Hotel will be available to buy at £6.50
	11.30	Rose Andresier. The Classical Guitar. An illustrated talk and recital
Friday 7 August	10.15	Ken Baldry. Tchaikovsky 1840-1893: Lawyer to Composer
	11.30	The Ralph Blumenau tapes. The Dreyfuss Affair. An opportunity to hear this iconic U3A lecturer, with his slides and notes

Summer Programme 2026 Room 2.21 and Zoom

Week 2

Monday 10 August	10.15	Mary Rossiter 2/2. Surprising (or Secret) London
	11.30	James Gilmour. Victorian Artist Lady Butler. A British painter who specialised in painting scenes of military campaigns and battles, including the Crimean and Napoleonic wars
Tuesday 11 August	10.15	Ken Baldry 3/3. The History of the Waltz
	11.30	Yvonne Dove. The Skagen Painters
Wednesday 12 August	10.15	Andy Moss 2/3. Smoke Gets in your Eyes: Airplane Safety
	11.30	Catherine Osborn 1/2. Writing your Biography. What qualities are needed to make it a good read and how do you find a publisher?
	15.00	STRAWBERRY CREAM TEA Singing along with Stanley Volk
Thursday 13 August	10.15	Tina Naples. The Legend of Robin Hood. One of the most-loved English folk heroes. But how much of what we (think we) know is true and how much is just myth?
	11.30	Catherine Osborn 2/2. History of Eugenics. How the theory started in England and ended in Nazi Germany
Friday 14 August	10.15	The Ralph Blumenau tapes 2/2. Voltaire. One of Ralph's philosophy talks with his words, notes and slides.
	11.30	Amrita Narain. Cook Indiaah: Eating Healthy Indian food

Summer Programme 2026 Room 2.21 and Zoom

Week 3

Monday 17 August	10.15	Andrew Sheldon 1/2 Digital Forensics Casebook. Tales from 30 years' investigating crimes, giving insight into the sometimes challenging, unpredictable and rewarding world of the digital forensic investigator
	11.30	Franca Cerudi. Abbeys in the Milan Countryside. Ancient abbeys surrounding Milan were foundational in developing the regional agricultural landscape. Cycling and walking paths connect many and form 'La Strada delle Abbazie'
Tuesday 18 August	10.15	Harriet Smith. Elderly Cognitive Hearing. Harriet runs the Speech and Hearing Project at UCL, focusing on communication as we get older when we often struggle to hear in a crowded environment. Research volunteers needed!
	11.30	Mickey Yudkin 1/2 Forgiveness, is it always possible?
	15.00	Recorder Group CONCERT followed by STRAWBERRY TEA
Wednesday 19 August	10.15	Andy Moss 3/3. Movies from Above: Movie clips to sooth your worries and take away your cares
	11.30	Stephen Barry 2/2. Redevelopment of Old Oak Common. Where a vast interchange station is being built for HS2 and other train routes
	14.30	WALK. Doctors, Trams and Fairs (rpt): The History of Pond Street and South End Green. Email Averil to book, and meet outside St Stephen's Church, corner Rosslyn Hill and Pond Street. Email Averil to book
Thursday 20 August	10.15	Daniel Snowman. Verdi and Victoria: National Icons. Queen Victoria & Guiseppe Verdi died within a week of each other in 1901: They shared common interests, Victoria loved music and opera and Verdi cared deeply about politics
	11.30	Constantine Baxter 1/2. Relevance of Metaphysical Poetry today. An exploration of profound human experiences within poetry
Friday 21 August	10.15	Ian Hawker. Artificial Intelligence Everywhere! AI is used in medical diagnostics and image recognition. Ian discusses the benefits and risks, and the impact on jobs and society in general
	11.30	Constantine Baxter 2/2. Relevance of Romantic Poetry today

Summer Programme 2026 Room 2.21 and Zoom

Week 4

Monday 24 August	10.15	Andrew Sheldon 2/2. Mobile phone forensics: The Evidence in your Pockets. This talk reveals just how much your mobile phone knows about you
	11.30	Marian Werner. Karel from the Other World. Out of Worldly personal experiences
Tuesday 25 August	10.15	Chris Grant BT/AbilityNet: Landlines are going digital – don't get left behind. Important facts you need to know
	11.30	Mickey Yudkin 2/2. Function of Gratitude and Kindness in Unpredictable Times
Wednesday 26 August	10.15	William Mach. Fleet Street Journalist 1987-1993 and Whitehall Press Officer
	11.30	Helen Dymond. The Private Life of Mr Handel. Helen's book 'Finding Handel' was first published in 2021 to great acclaim and republished last year. Signed copies will be available to buy (£10)
Thursday 27 August	10.15	Sarah Hughes. Tales from the audition room. Life as a casting director with a frank and funny behind-the-scenes look at how productions come to life by casting the right (and potentially the wrong) actors
	11.30	Woody Haut. Hardboiled Writers, Film Noir and Hollywood
Friday 28 August	10.15	Sue Kwok. The History of Airline Cabin Crew
	11.30	CHAT over Tea, Coffee and Cakes
	12.30-13.30	Ruth Brooks: Exploring Experiences of the Third Age

Continuing Classes from July 28 till September 11:

Recorder Group Room in 1.29 Tuesdays 10 – 11.30
 Country Dancing in Room 2.21 Tuesday 4th and 25th August from 12.40
 Bridge on Zoom Wednesday 10am, Friday 10.30 – 12.30
 Mah Jong in Room 1.24 Wednesdays 10.30 – 13.00
 Literature: Modern and Contemporary on Zoom Wednesdays 29 July, 5&26 August
 Chamber Music Workshop (various rooms) 18.30 – 21.00
 Art Class in 1.29 Friday 10 – 12.00
 INDIAAH: Indian Cooking on Zoom 31 July 11am (contact Amrita for link)